

I don't see why the federal government should dictate the laws that apply to any state concerning telephone list sales.

I still get calls under this system so don't make it weaker than it is now.